

Thursday, January 28, 2010

Mary Jo Paloranta

The New World of Work-Uniting the Passion Within

This presentation is about your success and power to create what you want for your professional and personal life. Mary Jo's humorous wisdom, experience and endless enthusiasm, have an exciting way of inspiring people to thrive in the new world of work, deliver exceptional service, achieve greater productivity, manage constant change, work in harmony with others, and maximize personal and professional potential. This high-powered luncheon will re-energize, retool and ready you for success.

About Mary Jo: Mary Jo Paloranta is a nationally recognized motivational speaker and business consultant. Her presentations have earned her a reputation as a powerful speaker who enhances success by acknowledging and encouraging individual potential. Her positive influence, common sense approach and enthusiasm have resulted in exceptional reviews from across the country.

Noon
Luncheon

For all staff

